

INFORMATION OMKRING ALLERGENE

Dear guest,

During your stay at Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center, we wish to inform you about our policies regarding allergens and requests for special diets.

Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center makes a great effort of identifying ingredients that can cause allergic reactions for those with food allergies. We make every effort to instruct our personnel about the seriousness of food allergies. Furthermore, we can always provide information on the general occurring allergens by contacting the staff. There is always a risk of cross contamination.

There is also the possibility that manufacturers of the commercial food we use, will change product labels at any time without notice, and guests with possible food allergies need to be aware of this risk.

Tivoli Hotel & Congress Centre assumes no responsibility for any allergic reactions caused by food that is eaten at or brought to Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center.

Guests with food allergies are encouraged to contact our staff who will do everything to assist.

Unfortunately we are not able to accommodate requests on other special diets in our bar, room service or restaurant, that goes beyond the allergens down below. We will be happy to advice you in our normal menus.
